The Riverside Church follows the liturgical calendar to mark the seasons of our life together. We are currently in the Season after Pentecost, also known as Ordinary Time. It is signified by the green paraments and clergy stoles that represent new life and growth. Ordinary Time is observed from Pentecost until the beginning of Advent.

Healing Prayer, typically offered the first Sunday of every month immediately following Worship, is available today. Two of Riverside’s ministers will be at the front of the Nave to pray for anyone who desires it.

IF THIS IS YOUR FIRST VISIT: Complete a Welcome Card and place it in the offering plate as it passes.

A free church tour is offered each Sunday after Worship. Meet in the 1st balcony, no reservation necessary. Tours also take place Wednesday-Saturday, 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., as church schedule permits, leaving from the Welcome Center / Gift Shop. Reservations recommended. Visit trcny.org/visit.

Assistive hearing devices and large print bulletins are available upon request from an usher.

One: Sing aloud to God our strength and shout with joy:

One: God reminds us, “I brought you out of the land of Egypt and fed you along the way.”
All: When we opened our mouths, God filled us with good things.
One: God calls us to walk the path of faithfulness, trusting the promise: a feast for all-- freshly-baked bread, hot from the oven, and sweet honey to satisfy our hunger.
All: Let us worship God!

Take My Life, and Let It Be

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee. Take my moments and my day; let them flow in ceaseless praise. Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of thy love. Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful for thee. Take my voice, and let me sing always, only, for my king. Take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee. Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold. Take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose. Take my will, and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine. Take my heart, it is thine own; it shall be thy royal throne. Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store. Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings

How lovely are thy dwellings, O Lord of Hosts! My soul longeth, yea, fainteth, for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my king and my God. O Lord God of Hosts, hear my prayer. I would rather be a door keeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness, for a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

AT THE PRESENTATION: THE DOXOLOGY

The congregation rises row by row as ushers pass to symbolize the offering of our whole selves to God.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

In Luke 14, Jesus teaches his friends about being humble and including others. He uses the example of hosting a dinner. Rather than inviting friends or people who could invite you to their house, Jesus tells his disciples to invite people who are poor, sick, or in need. Draw a dinner table and the people you would like to invite to your meal. Think especially about people who could use the encouragement of food and friendship.

What does Psalm 81 encourage us all to do as a way to praise and thank God?

Follow the path of letters, and each time you come to a capital letter, write that letter down at the bottom of the page. When you get to the end of the path, see what's spelled out below.

Extended Family (2006) “I like to come up with the title for a piece when I first start thinking about the image, and thought I would call this one Outside Children Inside (I overheard a discussion about a man’s ‘outside children,’ a reference to children born from an extramarital affair and it reminded me of slavery, and the idea that the master’s ‘outside children’ often lived ‘inside’ with the rest of the family). I imagined the black woman as wet-nurse for her mistresses’ child... with the slave’s own children with her master tending the mistress, fanning her and bringing her tea. These children are shown floating, an image I use sometimes to show one’s detachment and instability. When it was complete, I thought Extended Family was a more appropriate title, as the picture is not just about the children, but a whole bizarrely dysfunctional family.”

-Laura James, artist

In her upcoming exhibit at Riverside, Laura James combines the use of surrealist painting and postcolonial theory to address issues of gender, work, and motherhood in the lives of domestic workers living in New York City. The Nanny Series: A Postcolonial Reading opens September 22nd.
