REFORMATION SUNDAY

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
WELCOME TO THE RIVERSIDE CHURCH
Interdenominational · Interracial · International · Open · Affirming · Welcoming

WORSHIP is at the center of the life of The Riverside Church.
As you prepare yourself for Worship, we invite you to reflect quietly on these words:

Ecclesia reformata, semper reformanda secundum verbi Dei. "The Church is reformed and always being reformed by the Word of God."

-Jodocus van Lodenstein, 1674.

REFORMATION SUNDAY

The Riverside Church follows the liturgical calendar to mark the seasons of our life together. Today we are celebrating Reformation Day, remembering the work of God in the church through individuals like John Hus, Martin Luther, Elisabeth Cruciger, Elizabeth Melville, John Calvin, and many more. This day is signified by the red paraments and clergy stoles to represent the ongoing presence of the Holy Spirit as the church is reformed and always being reformed.

SOCIAL MEDIA SUNDAY

This year at The Riverside Church we are celebrating Reformation Sunday with Social Media Sunday, an ecumenical effort to share the good news about building community online. Social Media Sunday originated in the Episcopal Church and is an annual event which gives faith communities an opportunity to consider how to reach out online, digitally welcome people, and share their stories.

500 years ago the Reformation was fueled by the printing press, a new communications technology that allowed the Bible to be written in the language of the people and easily distributed. Today we are reformed and always being reformed by the Spirit of God. New communications technologies like social media allow us to share the good news of God’s love and justice by any media necessary.

When churches use social media it allows the stories of their ministries to be shared beyond the walls of their building and the borders of their neighborhood. When individual Christians use social media they can embrace digital evangelism, sharing their stories of God’s work in their lives and our world, following Jesus’ invitation to go into all the world (wide web) to share the gospel.

This morning you are invited to share your worship experience on your preferred social media platforms. You have permission to use your phone in worship, following the prompts in the bulletin as you capture quotes, share photos, and stream live video from your point of view. This is not an interruption of worship but an extension of worship, allowing what happens in this space to be shared with every space. Include #SocialMediaSunday in your posts so we can easily see what everyone is posting for Riverside’s Social Media Sunday.

If you have any questions, contact Rev. Jim Keat, Riverside’s Digital Minister, at jkeat@trcnyc.org, or send us a message on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram.

† CALL TO WORSHIP
Minister Charlene Wingate
One: This is the day that God has made.
All: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.
One: It is God who gathers us. In person, online and in every place:
All: We reflect the love of God to the world around us.
One: At home, at work, with friends, families, and even enemies:
All: We reflect the love of God to the world around us.
One: With every "like" on Facebook, every "favorite" on Twitter, every "Direct Message" on Instagram:
All: We reflect the love of God to the world around us.
One: Because every day is a day that God has made
All: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

As we prepare for worship, post a photo of something in the space around you that is calling you to worship.

RESPONDING
We respond to the hearing of God’s word through confession, offering, passing the peace, and monthly communion

PASTORAL PRAYER
Bruce Lamb

One: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.
One: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up unto the Lord.

THE LORD’S PRAYER
Pray in the language or version of your heart.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

CHORAL AMEN

PASSING OF THE PEACE
One: The peace of the Lord be with you.
All: And also with you.

INVITATION TO GIVE AND SERVE
Rev. Jim Keat

OFFERTORY ANTHEM
Thou, O God, Art Praised in Sion

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion, and unto Thee shall the vow be perform’d in Jerusalem. Thou that hearest the prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come. Blessed is the one whom Thou choosest and receivest unto Thee. They shall dwell in Thy courts and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of Thy house, e’en of Thy holy temple. Thou wilt keep them in perfect peace whose minds are stayed on Thee. Thou wilt keep them in perfect peace because they trust in Thee. Trust ye in the Lord forever, for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength. Let the people praise Thee, O God, yea, let all the people praise Thee. Then shall the earth bring forth its increase: and God shall give us great blessing.
AT THE PRESENTATION: THE DOXOLOGY

The congregation rises row by row as ushers pass to symbolize the offering of our whole selves to God.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, you heavenly host;

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING & DEDICATION

Minister Jordan

Today we celebrate the ministry of Movies at Riverside, which shows thought-provoking movies on the last Sunday of each month, covering topics such as the environment and political conflicts. These movies are meant to raise questions on themes related to social justice and/or insight into the experiences of people whose stories are often unfamiliar.

SENDING

We are sent out into the world to love God and our neighbors

BENEDICTION

Rev. Livingston

“Thank you God, for ______.”
Post your prayer of thanksgiving online.

“All who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”
- Luke 18:14
Revelation 21 describes the end of time, and in it, the writer describes a vision - “Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away.”

Draw a picture of what you imagine the “new heaven and new earth” look like.

I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.
FOLLOW the PATH

To what does Paul compare living a life of faith? Follow the path of letters, and each time you come to a capital letter, write that letter down at the bottom of the page. When you get to the end of the path, see what’s spelled out below.

DRAW IT

Psalm 65 praises God for the many ways we see God’s love, care, and power in creation. God created mountains, God calms the ocean, God gives people food, God brings the water fields need to grow, and more. Draw a picture of how you see God in creation.
ABOUT RIVERSIDE
The Riverside Church is an interdenominational, interracial, international, open, welcoming, and affirming church and congregation. The church is a member of the American Baptist Churches, U.S.A. and the United Church of Christ. Riverside cooperates with the Council of Churches in the City of New York and with the New York State, National, and World Council of Churches. Whoever you are: You are safe here. You are loved here. You are invited into full participation in our life together.
