in the City of New York

LAMEN  to Alleluia

MARCH 27, 2022
FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

WELCOME TO THE RIVERSIDE CHURCH

Interdenominational · Interracial · International · Open · Affirming · Welcoming

WORSHIP is at the center of the life of The Riverside Church.

Throughout the season of Lent we will be reflecting on the final words of Jesus as he suffered on the cross. As you prepare your heart for worship, consider
Matt 27:45-46:

From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, 'Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?' that is, 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?'

THE LITURGICAL YEAR

The Riverside Church follows the liturgical calendar to mark the seasons of our life together. We are currently in the season of Lent, a period of forty days leading to Easter marked by repentance and reflection on everything in our lives that separates us from God. The liturgical color of Lent is purple as signified by the paraments, wall hanging, and clergy stoles (excepting communion Sundays when clergy wear white stoles).

ANTHEM

Cudn't Keep it To Myself

Lyrics by Rev. Alex Bradford and Shelton Becton

Music by Shelton Becton

Said I wudn' gonna tell nobody, Said I wudn' tellin' nobody. Said I wudn't gonna tell nobody but I cudn't keep it to myself, no I cudn't keep it to myself. Said I wudn't gonna run fo' Jesus but I cudn't keep it to myself what the Lord has done for me. You ought'a been there when He saved my soul. You oughta been there when He put my name on the roll. Then I started walkin', started talkin', started singin', started shoutin' about what the Lord has done for me. Said I wudn' gonna tell nobody, said wudn' tellin' nobody. Said I wudn' gonna shout for joy but I cudn't keep it to myself what the Lord has done. Oh I said I wud'n gonna tell nobody but He picked me up and He turned me 'round. He placed my feet on solid ground. He gave me peace where none was found. That's what He's done. Look what He's done for me. I said I wudn't gonna tell nobody but I cudn't keep it to myself what the Lord has done for me.

About The Very Reverend Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas The Very Reverend Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas was named Dean of the Episcopal Divinity School at Union Theological Seminary and Professor of Theology at Union College in September 2017. She was named the Bill and Judith Moyers Chair in Theology in November 2019. She also serves as the Canon Theologian at the Washington National Cathedral and Theologian in Residence at Trinity Church Wall Street. Her groundbreaking and widely taught book Sexuality and the Black Church: A Womanist Perspective (1999) was the first to address the issue of homophobia within the Black church community. Her 2015 book, Stand Your Ground: Black Bodies and the Justice of God, examines the challenges of a “Stand Your Ground” culture for the Black church. Dean Douglas is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Denison University where she earned a bachelor of science summa cum laude in psychology. She went on to earn a master of divinity and a doctoral degree in systematic theology from Union Theological Seminary under James Cone, Ph.D., the premier Black theologian. A native of Dayton, Ohio, Dean Douglas was ordained at St. Margaret’s Episcopal Church in 1983 — the first Black woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest in the Southern Ohio Diocese, and one of only five nationwide at the time. She also was the first to receive the Anna Julia Cooper Award by the Union of Black Episcopalians (July 2012) for “her literary boldness and leadership in the development of a womanist theology and discussing the complexities of Christian faith in African-American contexts.”
