

Willard Walden Christopher Ashley, Sr. is the President & CEO of Dr. Willard Ashley, Sr., LLC, Upper Montclair, New Jersey, where he conducts webinars, consultation, psychoanalysis, group therapy, and coaching. Dr. Ashley is a trustee and faculty member of the New Jersey Institute for the Training in Psychoanalysis. He is also an advisory board member of Andover Newton Seminary at Yale Divinity School. Dr. Ashley is an organizer, learner, and trainer with the People's Institute for Survival and Beyond.

He instructs doctoral students on including racial trauma in their private practice at the Rutgers University School of Social Work, DSW Program. Dr. Ashley has served as pastor for 42 years at various congregations. He served as a staff psychotherapist at Riverside Church, New York City. Dr. Ashley designed and implemented the "Care for the Caregivers Interfaith Program: A Ministry of the Council of Churches of the City of New York" after the tragic events of 9/11/01. Dr. Ashley was the second African American granted tenure and the first African American Dean of the Seminary New Brunswick Theological Seminary (NBTS). Dr. Ashley authored several books and chapters. He is a native New Yorker and loves the Yankees.