

Rev. Dr. Mycal X. Brickhouse
Duke Divinity
Durham, North Carolina

The Rev. Dr. Mycal X. Brickhouse is a director of programs and grants at Leadership Education at Duke Divinity, overseeing Reflective Leadership Grants and Foundations of Christian Leadership.

Brickhouse was ordained as an itinerant elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. He has previously served as a pastor in North Carolina and as director of alumni relations at Duke Divinity School.

He graduated from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill and earned an M.Div. from Duke Divinity School, where he also completed his Doctor of Ministry.

Rev. Brickhouse's intellectual prowess is evident in his published works, which include contributions to esteemed publications such as Sojourners, Faith and Leadership, and The Christian Recorder - the oldest periodical published by African Americans in the United States.

He is passionate about community relations and spending time with his family. Rev. Brickhouse is married to the lovely Kristin McCullough Brickhouse, and together, they have one beautiful baby girl, Micah, one handsome baby boy, Mako, and one pup-child named Carolina.
