

The Riverside Church
in the City of New York

For such a time as this

JANUARY 31, 2021
FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

WELCOME TO THE RIVERSIDE CHURCH

Interdenominational · Interracial · International · Open · Affirming · Welcoming

WORSHIP is at the center of the life of The Riverside Church.

As you prepare yourself for Worship, we invite you to reflect quietly on these words:

“In his book, The Secret Message of Jesus: Uncovering the Truth that Could Change Everything, Brian McLaren uses the metaphor “dream of God for creation” as a way of rendering “Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven” without the hierarchal connotations of kingdom language. For McLaren, “dream” equals God’s highest hope for creation, which McLaren asserts is “freedom and creativity, kindness and justice, generosity and peace, diversity and harmony.”

Conversely, “nightmare of God” can be used as a metaphor for sin and evil

-(McLaren, 141).

THE LITURGICAL YEAR

The Riverside Church follows the liturgical calendar to mark the seasons of our life together. We are currently in the season after Epiphany, as signified by green paraments and clergy stoles, symbolizing the Holy Spirit, hope, and eternal life.

All: Teach us to live together as family while we worship in Your name.

OPENING HYMN 487

When Morning Gilds the Skies

Laudes domini

When morning gilds the skies,

My heart awaking cries:

May Jesus Christ be praised!

Alike at work and prayer

To Jesus I repair:

May Jesus Christ be praised!

Does sadness fill my mind?

A solace here I find:

May Jesus Christ be praised!

Or fades my earthly bliss?

My comfort still is this:

May Jesus Christ be praised!

Let earth's wide circle round
In joyful notes resound:
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let air and sea and sky
From depth to height reply:
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine:
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this the eternal song
Through all the ages long:
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Meghann Vaughn, mezzo-soprano

CLOSING HYMN 470

O Day of Radiant Gladness

Es flog ein kleins Waldvögelein

O day of radiant gladness,

O day of joy and light,

O balm of care and sadness,

Most beautiful, most bright;

This day the high and lowly,

Through ages joined in tune,

Sing, "Holy, holy, holy,"

To the great God Triune.

This day at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
This day for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth;
This day our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven,
And thus this day most glorious
A triple light was given.

This day, God's people meeting,
His Holy Scripture hear;
His living presence greeting,
Through Bread and Wine made near.
We journey on, believing,
Renewed with heavenly might,
From grace more grace receiving
On this blest day of light.

That light our hope sustaining,
We walk the pilgrim way,
At length our rest attaining,
Our endless Sabbath day.
We sing to thee our praises,
O Father, Spirit, Son;
The Church her voice upraises

SENDING

We are sent out into the world to love God and our neighbors

Special thanks to our congregational leaders: Kara Dago-Clark & Annie Meredith

The Reverend. Dr. Raquel S. Lettsome is committed to excellence and loves to assist people who desire to move forward in their lives and ministries. To that end, she has integrated over 20 years of congregational ministry experience, extensive biblical and theological training, Spirit-led discernment, and her love of God and people to create RSL Ministries (www.rslministries.com). Dr. Lettsome birthed RSL Ministries out of deep desire to help people develop deeper relationships with God, live out their sense of call, and navigate life's challenges.

Dr. Lettsome's approach to ministry is marked by honest compassion, profound clarity, and practical strategies for reaching one's goals. She is known for creating safe and encouraging spaces for people to strengthen their practice of ministry, for individuals (lay, clergy, or questioning) to discern what God is calling or leading them to do (whether great or small, secular or sacred) and work through what may be blocking their progress in these areas without embarrassment or shame. When all is said and done, she finds great joy in helping people experience, follow, and grow in God in their daily lives.

At her core, Dr. Lettsome is a preacher and teacher. Her preaching distinctions include the Distinguished Preachers Series at Riverside Church, NY, the George A. Crawley Women in Ministry Preacher at the Hampton University Ministers' Conference, a conference preacher for the Samuel DeWitt Proctor Conference, the Festival of Homiletics, and Working Preacher's The Craft of Preaching. She is a lecturer for seminary classes, conferences, and denominational meetings. Her presentations combine scholarly depth with an eye toward practical application and are communicated clearly, simply, and understandably. She is also a published author with books and articles written in the fields of homiletics, biblical studies, and womanist biblical interpretation and theology.

Dr. Lettsome earned a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies from Yale University and a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary and is the first African American to earn a Ph.D. in New Testament Studies at Princeton Theological Seminary (2005).

Dr. Lettsome is blessed to share her life with her husband, Rev. Lydell C. Lettsome, M.D., and their 2 children, Tiffany (aka Simone) and Luke (the Amazing).
